Roundtable Member Outreach Strategies:

- Identifying Key Resources

NYCHA can assist by:

- Introducing Resident Roundtable Members via NYCHA communications
 - Facilitating introduction to Resident Leaders & CBOs
 - Sharing publicly available development demographics and maps
- NYCHA cannot share Personally Identifiable Information (PII) without the express written consent of residents.

Roundtable Member Outreach Strategies: Getting Started

- Identifying Key Neighborhood Stakeholders
 - Resident Association Leaders*
 - Key Influencers of the Neighborhood (unofficial leaders)
 - Local Community Based Organizations (Community & Senior Centers, Settlement Houses, etc.)
- Identifying Key Opportunities to Share Information and Gather Feedback
 - Community events/meetings/communications (pre-existing & Roundtable Member-established)

Roundtable Member Outreach Strategies:

Role of Resident Council per § PART 964—TENANT PARTICIPATION AND TENANT OPPORTUNITIES IN PUBLIC HOUSING:

The role of a resident council is to improve the quality of life and resident satisfaction and participate in self-help initiatives to enable residents to create a positive living environment for families living in public housing. Resident councils may actively participate through a working partnership with the HA to advise and assist in all aspects of public housing operations.

- Resident councils consist of persons residing in public housing and represent public housing residents in a particular development, building or combination of buildings
- The resident council shall hold frequent meetings with the residents to ensure that residents have input and are aware and actively involved in HA management-resident council decisions and activities.
- Resident councils must adopt written procedures/by laws which provides for the election of residents to the governing board by the voting membership at least every three (3) years. At a minimum, the governing board should consist of five (5) elected board members.
- The voting membership must consist of heads of households (any age) and other residents at least 18 years of age or older and whose name appears on a lease for the unit in the public housing that the resident council represents.
- Officially recognized Resident Councils are eligible to receive funds for resident council activities, and stipends for officers for their related costs for volunteer work in public housing

Roundtable Member Outreach Strategies: Establishing working relationships with Resident Leaders

- Identifying Key Opportunities to Collaborate with Resident Leaders
- Difference between Roundtable Members and Resident Leaders
- Making Resident Leadership aware of Resident Roundtable members

Questions? Concerns? Ideas?

Breakout Room Activity!

- Breakout rooms divided by subcommittee and NYCHA liaison(s)
- In the breakout room, we are asking you to recap and refresh on your subcommittee meeting during the week and be prepared to:
 - Discuss what was presented, especially the presenter's presentation surrounding each topic
 - Discuss whether the subcommittee agreed to tackle any area of work (“parameters” or “tangible product”)
 - Discuss any follow-ups or next steps

Subcommittee Feedback

- Each subcommittee group will provide a brief recap of the main discussion points from your subcommittee meeting
 - No need to share everything – just the themes, key takeaways, etc.!

Next Steps

- Monthly, recurring subcommittee meetings have been scheduled
- Subcommittees will receive follow-up from NYCHA liaison
- Stipend update
